rgrogg@kemperconsult.com

Ross Grogg has over ten years of state government experience in Virginia and represents clients before the Virginia General Assembly, legislative and executive branch agencies, boards and commissions. His practice includes education, healthcare, alcohol, maritime, utilities, and budgetary issues. Ross also helps clients manage their political action committees including all necessary filings with the State Board of Elections, the Federal Election Commission, and the Internal Revenue Service.

Ross started his full-time career in politics serving as Political Director on the successful state senate campaign for Jeff McWaters in 2009. In 2010 he was named to Aristotle's Republican Campaign Dream Team for his work on the McWaters campaign. Ross went on to serve as the Senator's legislative aide and then campaign manager during his reelection in 2011.

A graduate of the College of William and Mary with a Bachelor of Arts in Government, Ross also graduated from the Sorensen Institute for Political Leadership at the University of Virginia and the CIVIC Leadership Institute. Ross serves as Treasurer of the Virginia Public Access Project and is a member of the Pastoral Council of St. Bridget Catholic Church. He lives in Richmond, VA with his wife and daughter.
